hello@mohitshukla.design

My name is Mohit Shukla & I'm pursuing my MFA in Interactive Arts at Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY.

I pursued my bachelors in Product Design, but decided that my interests lie more in building interactive experiences for people rather than something for them to sit on.

I'm a firm believer in creation: anything that we can dream up can be a reality. I can be found tinkering around with gadgets and softwares to bring them to work together to create vivid, dreamlike realities.
